Mrs. Coatrey Harvey

IN MEMORIAN
In loving remembrance of my wife, Dora Durie, who departed this life, August 25, 1958.

Gone is the face we loved so dear,
Silent the voice we used to hear,
Too far away for sight or speech,
But not too far for thoughts to reach.
— Sadly missed by Husband,
W. S. Durie, and Children.

Your JOB—AND Ours

Community progress and community co-operation go hand in hand.

New homes, stores and other facilities are constructed . . . young people learn the lessons of thrift . . . parents finance educational costs, medical bills, cars and appliances – and local business and individuals go forward together.

It gives us a feeling of civic pride to know that, through credit and other services, in every step of the financial progress of so many of our people, our bank has been privileged to have a part.

Working together for the progress of our community is your job and ours.

NEW PASTOR AND REVIVAL AT LIBERTY CHAPEL

Reverend Gilbert M. Profitt has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Gladstone Memorial and the Liberty Chapel Baptist Churches. The Profitts moved on the field the first of August and began their duties on the field August 6.

Rev. Profitt is a native of Kentucky and is a graduate of Southern Baptist Theological Seminary of Louisville, Ky. He has served churches in Virginia since 1952. He is married and has two sons, Alvin and Dale. Mrs. Profitt is a native of Canada, but grew up in Rhode Island. She was a missionary in Kentucky at the time of their marriage.

Rev. Profitt will conduct a revival at the Liberty Chapel Baptist Church the week of August 20 through 25. Services will begin nightly at 7:30. The topics of the sermons are as follows:

Sunday morning: "Five Things the Early Church Had Which Made It Strong."

Sunday evening: "Thinking of The Way."

Monday night: "Some Effects of Sin."

Tuesday night: "Naamah, His Rebellion and Repentance."

Wednesday night: "He Jesus Passed By."

Thursday night: "What Are You Purchasing With Your Life."

Memorial Church Activities

Youth Activities Week will be held, beginning Monday August 21st at 7:00 P. M. in the Memorial Church, by the Appomattox, Sub-District. Programs will be held each evening of the week, beginning at seven O'clock, and closing at 9:00 P. M. with Fellowship and Refreshments served by the Host Church.

Tuesday evenings Program will be in the Pamplin Methodist Church, Wednesday Evening in the Mt. Comfort Methodist Church and the concluding Evening program will be in the Trinity Methodist Church closing with a Galilean Services the group meeting first at the Bethlehem Methodist Church. Conductors:

Rev. George Wesley Jones, of Lynchburg, will lead game and teach new recreational activities to the entire group on Monday Evening. The four ministers of the Area, Rev. William L. Ayers, Rev. Charles P. Price, Rev. Rev. Charles P. Price, Rev. Robert M. Gay, and Rev. Richard A. Bergdoll will lead discussion groups each evening, for the four different age-groups: Junior Highs Ages, Grades 7 and 8 Senior Highs Grade 9, Senior Highs Grades 10, 11, Older Youth Grades 12 and Up. Miss Faye Wood will be in charge of recreation and Thursday evening, Rev. Richard F. Faris of Lynchburg will be featured leader of the entire group.

All Youth and their Adult Leaders from the 12 Participating Churches of the Appomattox Sub-District will attend each night of the Activities.

Dr. William F. Guillan, President of Randolph-Macon Woman's College, Lynchburg, will deliver the Morning Message at 11:00 A. M. and special choir selections will be presented by the Sanctuary Choir. Dr. Guillan is a Methodist Minister and the son of a minister of the Georgia Annual Conference.

Rev. Charles P. Price, pastor of the Pamplin Methodist Church, will be the Guest Preacher for the Evening Evangelistic Service beginning at 8:30 P. M. with the Chapel Choir presenting Special Vocal Selections.

The Month of August closes the first three months on the Current Conference Year and all members of Memorial are urged to have their contributions in full to date by the end of the Month. Building Fund Contributions are solicited also.

Plan Addition At Court House

Bids have been asked for an addition to the Appomattox County Clerk's Office. Those desiring to bid may receive plans and specifications and submit their bids by Thursday, August 24.

The overall plan is to add two rooms on the west end of the present Clerk's Office. One room will be for the purpose of increasing the space available to the Commissioner of the Revenue, and the other to increase the space available to the county court clerk.

This is the first major addition to the facilities at the local court house in several years. Both additions are held to be overdue, and if bids are in line with the funds available, it is presumed that the construction will begin promptly.

REVIVAL AT EVERGREEN

Revival services will start at the Evergreen Baptist Church at 11:00 A. M. Sunday, with services each evening through Friday at 7:45.

The Rev. Elton McDowell, of the Falling River Baptist Church, at Brookneal, will be the evangelist.

The public is cordially invited to attend these services.

BIDS ASKED FOR SURPLUS PARK SERVICE ITEMS

It has been announced that sealed bids will be accepted for opening Sept. 1, 1961, at Appomattox Court House National Historical Park, Appomattox, Va., for a number of items declared surplus. Inspection is invited from 8 A. M. to 4 P. M., Monday through Friday.

Interviews may be obtained with the local Park Service Superintendent.

A gym set, a present from his parents, furnished entertainment for the children. In addition, adults present were Mrs. F. M. Alley, Mrs. Lair's mother, Mrs. Robert Austin, Mrs. Stuart Farrar, Mrs. John Hix, and Miss Kathrine Farrar.

Cakes in the shapes of rocking horse and a fish were served with ice cream. Also favors were given to the children.

Lt. and Mrs. George Glass and Kathy were week-end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Fore. The Glasses were en route to their home in Dover, Del. Lt. Glass had attended Officers' Training School in Montgomery, Ala, for 3 months.

Linda Kay Webb, of Richmond, is spending two weeks as guest of Dr. Dwitt Goins. Mrs. Edward Webb, her mother, has moved back to Richmond. She is employed at the telephone exchange, where she was employed before she married the late Edward Webb.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Sears last week were Lou Taylor, daughter of Mrs. Sears Taylor, of West Point, and Kathryn Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor, of Appomattox.

On Saturday, Mrs. Ernest Rogers, of Appomattox, sister of Mr. Henry Covington, left Lynchburg General Hospital, where she underwent surgery ten days ago. She is now recuperating in the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. McClintic, in Lynchburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Coleman, of Oak Hill, W. Va., visited his sister, Mrs. Ed McPhillips last week. Other guests in the same home were Mrs. Watkins McPhillips and children, of Richmond.

To Virginia Beach motored Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walker Covington, Miss Estelle Covington, and Mrs. Stanley Roach, for the week-end.

Mrs. Rob Martin and Mrs. Edwin Fore attended the Home Demonstration Federation meeting in Blackstone last week.

Mrs. Jim Carson was present at the Bryant reunion at Hollywood Baptist Church on Sunday. Dinner was served on the grounds.

The silo filling time has arrived.

Early Monday morning, the corn-cutter passed on to "Capt." Covington's farm, where the first silo will be filled.

The good neighbor policy of helping each other gives the dairymen a chance to meet once a year and chat while eating a delicious dinner prepared by the housewives.

Hixburg

Hixburg, Aug. 15.- The homecoming at Walker's Presbyterian Church here on Sunday, Aug. 6, was the second homecoming during Dr. Twyman Williams' thirteen years as pastor.

Crote Carson and family, of Richmond, and Mrs. Jessie Carson Nuckols and family, of Dillwyn, presented the Carsons at the Dedication of the Carson Sunday School room.

For the dedication of the Marshall room, were Mrs. Mary Pearl Carson Terry and family, of Appomattox, and Mrs. Morton Marshall, of Pamplin.

Around the dinner table and in between the dedication and the homecoming sermon by the Rev. Wilbur Maxwell, friends, who had not seen each other for years, renewed the fellowship of by-gone days.

Mrs. Lillian Gilliam Cary, of Richmond regretted that she could not attend. She wrote that she still has fond memories of childhood days in the then union (Baptist and Presbyterian) Church, where her father, Mr. John W. Gillam, was superintendent of the Sunday School.

Mrs. Patrick Lair honored her son, Matt, with a birthday party on her lawn, beginning at 2:30 P. M., Aug. 4. Matt was four years old.

His guests were Janet, Jane, David and Tommy Hix; Trixie Ann and Sally Farrar, and Inez Austin. He received many nice gifts.
